

Cities at Prayer Magazine

God is moving in an unusual way in cities across the United States. More and more communities are seeing pastors and churches praying together for revival in their churches and spiritual awakening and transformation in their city.

You can learn about what God is doing in our Fall issue of Prayer Connect magazine, which goes to press in another week. "Cities at Prayer: Continuous Intercession for Your Community" is the theme.

While it will not be available until mid-September, you can pre-order your copy now – or better yet, why not subscribe to this up-lifting magazine that will equip you to pray!
