

City of Prayer Information

Many are asking about our soon-to-be-released book City of Prayer by Pastors Trey Kent and Kie Bowman.

City of Prayer both tells the story of what God is doing in Austin, Texas, where for the past 10 years there has been “unceasing prayer,” with hundreds of churches and thousands of individuals involved in praying for Austin, and it shares how this movement could be possible in any city across the country.

This book has such a powerful message that Dick Eastman, President of Every Home for Christ, wrote this in the Foreword: “City of Prayer could well be a spark to ignite a firestorm of prayer the likes of which our nation has never seen.”

City of Prayer* is set to be released around September 15, 2019. Pre-orders will begin in mid-August. Come to this page for updated information, or sign-up below to receive email updates on both City of Prayer and other stories of prayer within communities and churches that we find.
