Memes and Quotes:

Father, the world we live in has been twisted out of joint. Your Body has often fallen to the same fate.

Dislocated from one another we wander aimlessly trying to be effective in ministry as the Body, but a body disjointed cannot function. The effect of the true unity of the Body of Christ is our witness to the world that you were sent. May we embrace the prayer of Jesus to become one.

Lord, humble us.
Make us go low. Make us lay prostrate. Make us weak so that your strength will prevail
during these times.

Help us to see that we can do nothing apart from your grace and power. In this battle to end racism and racial inequality in our land, would you clothe us with humility?

We lament these evils that our dark past has caused. We lament mothers losing sons and daughters.

For every holiday, family gathering and birthday that will never be the same, we lament. We lament the fact that the Church has been silent on the issue, when we should have led the cry against it. Complicit in things we should have named as sin, we lament.

Make us one, even as you in Christ Jesus are One.
Lead us to walk together in unity. Lead us to address the things that divide our community.

We ask you now for every person, no matter our skin color or ethnic group, to see that Jesus has already torn down the walls of hostility and separation between us through his death and resurrection.”

Heavenly Father, thank you for making us in your image, and for giving every individual dignity and honor.

Forgive us for the times we have walked away from the mirror of Scripture, keeping the plank in our eye while judging the speck in our brother's. Forgive us for putting our needs above others.

Convict us to consider others more valuable than ourselves, that we would embrace the mind of Christ, making our self servants of all, just like Jesus.

You and you alone can make your people one. I ask that today a shift and a change will take place in the hearts of many of your people, that conviction would arise upon our souls calling us to humility and love.

Father, your word tells us that you are our light and salvation. I and my brothers and sisters acknowledge that now, more than ever, we need your light to shine...

Shine your light in our hearts, dispelling any place of prejudice, for in your light we see light. With boldness and courage, we ask you to change us any way you want.

Forgive us for excepting temporal victories,
drinking from broken cisterns, and settling for a pagan peace...

We ask for supernatural healing from all radicalized trauma and related historic post-traumatic stress. You are faithful, true, and just in all of your ways! As you show forth your mercy, heal our troubled bones, and grant us your salvation.

Father, we thank you that in every generation for the sake of your name, you reserve a remnant which will not bow its knees to Baal.

In every era of history, you reaffirm your commitment to restoring your fellowship with mankind. We pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our individual lives that will lead us to love mercy, do justly and to walk humbly before our God.

We proclaim that Jesus is the light of the world.
Help us to see all people,
in all their array of colors and diversity, as manifestations of your light, for we are all created in your image and are sacred in your sight.

We are trusting you now, agreeing with other brothers and sisters in Christ of all ethnic backgrounds, according to your promise, that America will be delivered from this awful atmosphere of hateful division that is tearing our country apart.

--John Robb from

Help us, dear Father, to be life-giving messengers of reconciliation who believe that those who unite others in the love and blessing of God will make the greatest contribution to world history by fulfilling the longest prayer
of the Savior
in John 17.

Lord Jesus,
please help us answer your prayer by supernaturally making us one.

--Ron Boehme from *Make Us One: A 31-Day Prayer Journey Toward Racial Healing

We ask you now, Lord Jesus Christ, to replace all prejudice with complete acceptance, replace any hostility with the peace of Christ, and replace any hate with the unconditional love of Jesus.

--Dr. Ronnie Floyd from Make Us One: A 31-Day Prayer Journey Toward Racial Healing

Make us eager to honor. Make us swift to forgive. Train us to walk in Jesus' ways of open-hearted kindness. Only with the mind of our risen, living Lord is there hope that we will overcome differences to enjoy a unity of heart, voice, and purpose.

--Steve Hawthorne from *Make Us One:

Lord Jesus, Change the way we think about “We the people” and “Liberty and justice for all” and “Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.” We declare these are truly inalienable rights endowed by you for every person and people group.

--Phil Miglioratti from *Make Us One: A 21-Day
Prayer Journey Toward Racial Healing*

Lord Jesus, may you take us to a deeper level of identifying with people
different than ourselves,
to be bridges to their souls longing for peace and restoration in you.

Racial Healing*

A stylized background graphic featuring a central church steeple in shades of orange and yellow, topped with a cross. To the left of the steeple is a teal-colored building, and to the right is a yellow building. The base of these structures is a wide, multi-colored band in shades of teal, green, and yellow.

As new social justice and civil rights movements are pushing to dominate the narrative, the Church carries the kind of  justice that meets both the temporal and eternal freedom that the world is searching for. It is a Jesus-justice fueled by biblical conviction, compassion, prayer, and action that will bring revival to the heart and transformation to society.

--Niko Peele from *Make Us One:

God search us. Reveal to us the ways we have been complicit with racism. Reveal to us the places where values, prayers, and actions don't align. God, help us to live out the ethic of the gospel. To love one another well.

--Josh Clemons from *Make Us One:
A 31-Day Prayer Journey Toward

May the evidence of our message be how we love one another, how we serve one another, how we accept one another. We desire to embrace unity for the sake of those who need to believe that you were sent to save them.

--Eli Bonilla from *Make Us One: A

We pray for un-offended hearts that will be given wholeheartedly to the cause of Christ, which is the ministry of reconciliation.

--Brian Williams from *Make Us

Toward Racial Healing

The socially engineered lie of separate races and racism blinds us. We repent of our clinging to skin color. Forgive us Lord. Open our eyes Lord. Jesus, you give sight to the blind. Show us your one blood/one human race. Show us, help us receive this truth together. Help us to love you, to love one another, and ourselves.

--Alveda King from Make Us One: A 31-Day Prayer Journey Toward Racial Healing

Allow your people in this nation, especially black and white, to WAKE UP to CHRIST enough to become sorely sorrowful, realizing that one race oppressing another is fundamentally a sin against the living Christ himself.

--David Bryant from Make Us One: A 31-Day Prayer Journey Toward Racial Healing
