

Pray for America Resources

This section leads you to articles and resources to help you personally to be more effective in praying for the United States, but it also includes a section to help you lead others in praying for our nation. If you lead any prayer meetings, or a National Day of Prayer event in your church or workplace, this is a place that can equip you.